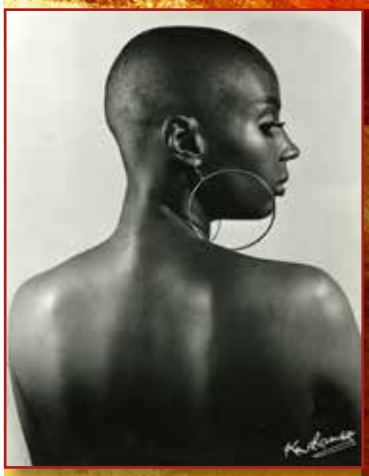
COLLEGE NIGHT AT THE FIGGE

MAXIMUM EXPOSURE

6-9 pm Thursday October 25th, 2012

FREE admission to college students, faculty and staff



Create and view submissions for our YouTube Video contest that poses the questions "What makes you beautiful?" and "What makes other people beautiful?" VISA Gift Cards will be given to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners. For more information, visit our YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/users/figgeartmuseum.

Ken Ramsay, Susan Taylor, as Model, c. 1970s, gelatin silver print

Posing Beauty in African American Culture is curated by Deborah Willis and organized by Curatorial Assistance Traveling Exhibitions, Pasadena, California

Grab your friends and join us for a party with maximum exposure through photo, video, dance and social media opportunities as we celebrate the exhibition Posing Beauty in African American Culture and find out what YOU think about how we display beauty.

- Enjoy our free candy "bar" or order "real" food at the Figge café.
- Make a Scene—take a pic of you and your friends using our props and message boards to make a statement. How do YOU want to be seen?
- Video Journal—Tell us what YOU think about what makes you and those around you beautiful
- Frame it up—Join us in the studios to make and take a frame for your self-portrait
- Collage for College—use your printed photos mixed with our Multi-Media supplies and make a collage page to take home
- Hip-Hop Workshop—Work on expressing yourself in a new way in this Dance Workshop taught by LaDerrick from Imani! Dancers & Studio for Cultural Arts, Inc.
- Tweet the Night Away—Tweet your thoughts and pics to @figgeartmuseum #collegenight
- Photo Face-off—Get together with your team and go on a photo scavenger hunt throughout the museum!

563.326.7804
www.figgeartmuseum.org
Davenport, Iowa

FIGGE ART MUSEUM