

Bring a sack lunch, snack and beverages. Please dress for art activities. Check-in begins at 8:45 am in the Figge lobby. Classes are held from 9 am-4pm. • Guided tours of the Figge collection, combined with studio discussions and critiques will help guide aspiring young artists as they experiment with different media. Students are encouraged to bring their sketchbooks and samples of artwork they've done outside of class. • Classes intended for 6th-8th grade students. Grade levels indicate the grade completed in 2012-13.

Art in the Middle

5 days • 5 ways for middle school students to explore.

Wednesday 6.12.13 DRAWING Expand your skills and knowledge of drawing techniques and materials in this all-day drawing workshop. Still life and observational exercises using pen, pencil, pastel, oil pastel and mixed media will give students a well-rounded, exciting day in art.

Wednesday 6.19.13 PAINTING Explore painting and brush techniques in acrylic and tempera paints, ink and watercolor, and experiment with the addition of selected mediums and various textural surfaces that will open up the wild possibilities of painting.

Wednesday 6.26.13 CARTOONING Professional cartoonist Jim Allen, creator of The Beauforts comic strip, will lead students on an exciting exploration into the art of cartooning. Using pen and ink, graphite, markers, paint washes and more, students will create single and multiple panel cartoons. This is a must-take class for aspiring cartoonists!

Wednesday 7.10.13 PRINTMAKING Students will create a variety of prints using techniques in screen printing, relief block printing, etching and more in this exciting sampling of the printmaking art form. Emerging artists will enjoy the personal artistic expression printmaking allows through the use of bold imagery, dynamic patterns, multiple colors, single color and black/white prints.

Wednesday 7.31.13 SCULPTURE Clay, wood, wire, cardboard, foam and a wide assortment of the usual (and some unusual) materials will be used to create 3-D art in this day-long studio workshop. Imagination and ingenuity are the focus of this creative experience.

FEE $50 members, $60 general public (per student, per workshop). All supplies are included. It is recommended that students bring a 9 x 12 or larger sketchbook to class.
